Who is Nuno F. Assis?

The renowned life and business coach Nuno F. Assis has been teaching the principles behind successful companies and lives for many years. A top sale person and charismatic leader himself he devoted his researches to the understanding of success principles and financial products at a young age, and started up his own company when he was just 18 years old.

Following his passion he began researching those essential factors that make extraordinary personalities stand out from the crowd, as well as the structures and systems that make companies successful in different cultures. Having found ways and means to put his profound knowledge and competence into practice, Nuno F. Assis is a renowned international management consultant, key-note-speaker and coach, sought after for his effectiveness in sales, marketing, entrepreneurship and leadership.

He speaks several languages such as fluent German, English and Portuguese.
